

“Drag is Not a Crime” gender expression bill public hearing and Pride month declaration

After a rally outside the Ulster County office building and the declaration of June officially being Pride month in Ulster County, legislators listened to several pre-registered and spontaneous speakers who urged them to add gender expression to the existing human rights law in our county. No one spoke in opposition to the bill. An additional opportunity for comment will be on July 18 at the Regular Session of the Legislature.