

Victory over anti Drag Story Hour complaints

Despite a few complaints and pressure to cancel the Woodstock Library Drag Story Hour and Sparkle party, the board unanimously decided to hold the story hour which had been planned in response to the community's request for this popular event. 2 drag performers, Amber Guesa and Katarina Mirage, read joyful stories of inclusivity and celebration of individuality to an attentive audience of children and adults of all ages. The successful event was one that both Amber and Katarina said they look forward to more of in our community. They profusely thanked all of the attendees for showing up and stated how important it is to support them and their work in getting children excited about books, and encouraging their self-expression and acceptance.
